The Here and NOW

The Here and Now is Hiscox NOW's monthly newsletter that includes the latest appetite expansions, coverage updates, and tips to help you write more business.

Detailed coverage information for 180+ professions

The new Hiscox NOW appetite guide makes it easy to determine if your client falls within our appetite, what coverage is available, and which profession to select based on the services they provide – all before you start a quote!

New benefits include the following information by profession:

- Hiscox definition of that class of business
- Limits and coverage enhancements by product, by profession
- Eligibility and excluded materials/services

Simply select your client's industry and then the profession to see all this detailed information.
